
Table of Contents

Introduction	38	Making your own straps
1 The business of sewing	40	Princess darts
1 Write or update your business plan	42	Strapless bodice
3 Pricing	42	Boning
6 Bookkeeping	45	Taking in bodice seams
7 Record keeping	46	Letting out a bodice
8 Insurance	47	Sleeves
8 Contingency plan	49	Covered buttons
9 Contracts	50	Analyzing from the top down—dresses
10 Client relations	51	Skirts
11 Studio essentials	53	Hems
15 Tools	60	Hemming a wedding gown from the floor
18 Notions specific to bridal/formalwear	62	Hemming a wedding gown from the waist
21 Equipment wish list	65	More on hems
23 What makes special occasion garments special?	67	Hemming a gown with a band edge
23 Brocade	68	Bustling a wedding gown
24 Charmeuse, chiffon, duchess satin	75	Working with specialty fabrics, lace and embellishments
25 Dupionni, georgette, jacquard	75	Chiffon
26 Organza, satin, taffeta	78	Velvet
27 Velvet, novelty fabrics, suggested reading	81	Sequins, pearls, beads, and other embellishments
28 Think Lace!	85	Lace
28 Alençon	87	Step by step...taking up bodice seams of a strapless gown
29 Chantilly, guipure, Schifflì	90	Add to your profits by making veils
30 Venise, appliqués, flounce, galloon, yardage	98	Train and veil lengths
31 Think Embellishment!	100	Restyling—alterations taken one step farther
31 Surface, incorporated, combination	102	Ironing vs. pressing vs. steaming
33 The First Step in Altering a Garment—Analyzing	104	Shorten sleeves from top...step by step
34 Start with a good foundation	106	Class photos
35 The bodice	108	Sources for alterations supplies
37 Straps	110	Make your own sturdy garment rack
